

Follow our recommended path for viewing the 2025 scarecrows:

As you head to Cambria from the south, take a short detour to Harmony Valley Creamery to look at Edgar Allen Poe.

Return to Highway 1 and turn right onto Main Street. Drive to the East Village. The scarecrows start on Main Street in front of the Creekside Inn and continue along on both sides of Main Street towards the West Village. Don't miss the Cambria Ambulance station where you'll be greeted by Pari-Medic and his big heart!

Find a parking spot along the street. As you venture west up Main Street, check out both sides of the street for scarecrows. There are also parking lots Between Center and Main Street a bit further up Main Street.

Be sure to take a detour to Burton Drive to see scarecrows on both sides of the street.

Head to the Cambria Dog Park and visit our favorite dog Abby.

At the Chevron station, continue west on the left side of Main Street where you will pass more scarecrows as you journey west to the Cambria Center of Performing Arts (CCA). Upon passing the Bluebird, you can rest a moment next to the Prince of Darkness. After that, go back to your car or walk to the (CCA) to see Sunny and Cher and also some of the cutest little dogs you'll ever come across. They were done by local children in one of the art classes the CCA offers.

Walk west over the bridge and head to the bus stop where you will encounter some local Cambria critters.

Take a short walk up the hill on Knollwood Drive. Check out Fruitisha at The Spot, and Ms Penelope Pumpkin at Luigi's. (Refer to the map for more specific directions.)

Once you get down the hill, continue your walk or return to your car to go to the Santa Rosa Catholic Church. If it is not Sunday you can park in their parking lot get out and enjoy the sweet display of Saint Francis who is joined by his furry friends.

Walk a little farther west to Cambria Drive, make a left and check out The Sleuth with her Range Rover and our Autumn Mobile with Zoomie and friends all headed to San Simeon. Make sure to take a photo at the fun photo boards we have there!

Cross the street to check out the scarecrows in front of the Vets Hall. Wander down past the Fresnel lens to have a conversation with Mr Ed and WS Howdy.
